

I support the establishment of a National Do-Not-Call list.

I also urge you to make the recorded messages, or "computerized" calls illegal. They are the most annoying, and are especially prevalent at election time.